++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely dry and sunny but cold on Monday.

Today:
It will be a dry and mostly bright day with some sunshine the best of this across the Western Isles and west Highland. Freezing fog patches are possible while thicker cloud, perhaps isolated showers, will affect north and east Highland. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tonight:
Central and western areas will stay dry with clear spells and a widespread sharp frost. More cloud in the east bringing a few showers, wintry across Strathspey and Easter Ross. Minimum temperature -5 deg C (23 deg F).

Tuesday:
Central and western areas will stay dry with sunny spells. More cloud in the east bringing a few showers, falling as snow over higher ground inland. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Wednesday starting dry with sunshine, then rain reaching west coast in afternoon turning to snow as it spreads inland in evening. Sunshine and wintry showers on Thursday then Friday dry.
